EXPOSITION WOMAN'S BOARD IS HOST AT WONDERFUL GATHERING

More Than Thousand Guests
Assemble to Meet Foreign and State Commissioners

BY KAMAANA.
[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—"The Woman's Board, Panama-Pacific International Exposition Requests the honor of your company at dinner on Monday, March 22, at 7 o'clock, California building, to meet the foreign and state Commissioners."

In response to the above invitation over a thousand guests were present at the most beautiful and elaborate occasion of the season when, in the center of a wonderful setting, gold lace and knee-breeches, court trains and the solemn dignity of officialdom mingled amid music and flowers and softly glowing lights that combined to create a most impressive sight.

At the appointed hour and for an hour after that an unbroken line of smart housewives and electric cars, horse-drawn victorias and huge automobiles deposited their freight of elegantly groomed men and women from all nations, a glitter with gold epaulettes and jewels, mingling with respectful dignity.

The massive lobby, with its forest of chandeliers, its groves of broken groups of palms, its circular seat of plush formed the setting for groups of diplomats and representatives from every quarter of the globe, as though every court presentation of every country had centered in the California building with the customs and etiquette of its people.

Uniformed exposition guards received each party of arriving guests, directing the ladies and gentlemen to their respective dressing rooms.

where in the former women arrived in numbers, fluttering in to greet friends, to ask questions, hurriedly, nervously, to check their gorgeous wraps, to reveal more gorgeous gowns and myriads of flaming jewels, to arrange their coiffures, and to add the lighter touches, to hurry out to the strains of distant music somewhere amid the soft glow of overhead chandeliers.

At the appointed hour and for an hour after that an unbroken line of smart housewives and electric cars, horse-drawn victorias and huge automobiles deposited their freight of elegantly groomed men and women from all nations, a glitter with gold epaulettes and jewels, mingling with respectful dignity.

PRESIDENT WILL NOT MAKE TRIP THROUGH CANAL

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless]
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 13.—President Wilson yesterday announced that he will be unable to accompany Secretary of the Navy Daniels through the canal in July, with the battleship fleet, for San Francisco. The international situation, both in Mexico and Europe, will prevent him leaving Washington for the length of time it would take to complete the trip.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try this! Makes hair thick, glossy, fluffy, beautiful—No more itching scalp.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of Dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine—advertisement.

GORGAS MAY TAKE ROCKEFELLER OFFER

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless]
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 13.—Maj. Gen. Gorgas probably will accept the offer of the Rockefeller Foundation to become permanently attached to its staff as consulting expert on public sanitation and the control of epidemics.

This statement was made here last night after President Wilson and Secretary Garrison of the department of war had conferred on the offer, which Gen. Gorgas had reported to the department.

Racked by pains in the stomach that doctors could not cure, James Smith of Greenville, Pa., coughed up a live frog.

The Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad will buy about $2,000,000 worth of rolling stock within the next few months.

REVOLT LEADERS IN PHILIPPINES STILL UNCAUGHT

Cariaga and Pana, Ringleaders, Evade Government Secret Service Men

According to news received aboard the steamer Chio Maru yesterday, Gen. Timoteo Cariaga, commander-in-chief of the Philippine revolutionary army, and Gen. Eulio Pana, his chief of staff, who were ringleaders of the uprising in the Philippines Christmas night, are still at large, despite the efforts of the government authorities to capture them.

It has been reported that Cariaga is hiding in Laguna province, from where with the assistance of friends and under cover of night, he is occasionally paying a visit to Manila. Scores of secret service agents have been detailed to trace the whereabouts of the ringleaders and a general alarm has been sent out to all constabulary and municipal police officers in the Philippines.

According to reports which have been received in Manila from Hongkong, Gen. Ricarte, another revolutionary leader, has been very quiet since the Singapore trouble, as it is said that the British authorities have intimated that they will not allow any of their colonies to be used as the headquarters for any revolutionary propaganda more or less identified with the pan-oriental movement.

HONOLULU IS HEIR TO LEGACY WORTH $420,000?

William C. Hodges, Jr., advertising manager of the Star-Bulletin, has been notified by letter from New York that he has fallen heir to a legacy worth $420,000 by the death of R. F. Fulton, a millionaire New York man.

The notification, which does not go into details, says the legacy consists of $100,000 in cash and $320,000 worth of property.

Fulton, Hodges says, had known him from his childhood, but the legacy came as a surprise. Fulton's death was sudden, his body being found in his New York apartment by servants recently. Hodges is beginning investigations to ascertain the facts in the case as the notification was of a very informal character.

PHILIPPINES NO PLACE FOR MAN LIKE J. E. ENRIGHT

The fact that he failed to "cotton" to a few of the Filipino patriots who at present are in high favor with the administration, is given as the cause for the retirement of John E. Enright as assistant director of civil service in the Philippines, which position recently was abolished by the present administration. Enright passed through Honolulu as a passenger in the Chio Maru, leaving for the coast today.

Enright's retirement terminated an active and eventful career in the Philippines, which extends more than 15 years. He first went to the Philippines in October, 1900, as a private in M Company, 5th U. S. Infantry, and served with that regiment in northern Luzon in the movement which resulted in the surrender of the late director of lands, Gen. Tinio. Later he was appointed clerk in the office of the civil service board and rose rapidly through all the grades to that of chief clerk.

Upon the retirement of Gen. James F. Smith in 1909, to whom he was private secretary, Mr. Enright was appointed assistant director of civil service. His friends declare that "he was too honest, square and impartial to cope with present-day politics in the Philippines."

'CAN'T HANDLE THAT STUFF'

Not long ago a fellow citizen stepped into a saloon and took a couple of glasses of beer. He says that he was hugely amused at the lamentations going on among the customers over the prevalent legislation against the saloon business. They believed that a stiff attack was being made on their personal liberties.

And this thought, he says, came into his mind:
"We men in that room were, roughly speaking, of two classes, namely, those who 'can handle' liquor, and those who 'can't.' The closing of saloons inflicts no great hardship on those who 'can handle' their wares; and it confers a very large benefit upon those who 'can't' handle them—and also upon their families."

"The first class, in truth, may be deprived of a liberty, almost valueless at best. But the benefit conferred by the second class is so great that those of the first class ought to be willing to give up their 'liberty' to produce the benefit."

"And who of the first class is sure that he may not some day find himself of those who 'can't handle the stuff'?"

CHILDREN'S LIBRARY IS PARCELLED OUT

Central Union library for children is no more. Acting upon the offer of the Sunday School executive committee, Rev. Henry P. Judd of the Hawaiian Board of Missions and Miss Mabel Bosher of the Kawaihae Seminary spent yesterday afternoon in dividing the books between their respective institutions.

"Our girls want reading matter so badly," said Miss Bosher. "We certainly welcome this gift of Central Union and vouch for a good use of the books."

Rev. Judd will distribute his share of the library to the isolated Sunday schools throughout the territory where there is little or no ready literature to be had. The juvenile library will be replaced by a teacher's reference library.

King George has withdrawn all his horses entered in the meetings at Liverpool and Lincoln this week.

BRYAN SENDS TRANSPORT SUMNER TO RELIEVE AMERICANS AT TAMPICO

Villa Reported on Verge of Nervous Breakdown From Worry Over Reverses

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless]
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 13.—An American army transport will leave at once for Tampico to bring thence to the United States some 300 Americans, destitute because of the war, and in danger should they be forced to remain while the fighting for the possession of the city continues.

Secretary Bryan yesterday asked Secretary Garrison to furnish an army transport for this trip, and last night it was announced by the war department that the Sumner would be dispatched for Tampico at once.

It is probable, also, that there will be an exodus of Americans and other foreigners from the City of Mexico to Vera Cruz, First Chief Carranza having yesterday informed Consul Siliman that he would provide a train to make the trip, on which all Americans desirous of leaving could be transported to Vera Cruz.

Less consideration for the safety of the foreigners is being shown by Gen. Obregon, who has refused to allow an armistice before Celaya in order that the non-combatants, including the foreigners, might be permitted to leave Celaya in the event that the place was to be attacked. The request for time to permit the non-combatants to reach a place of safety was sent to Obregon by Gen. Villa, through the foreign consuls. This method of transmission appears to have irritated Obregon, who states in his reply:

"I consider that it is highly unnecessary to interject foreigners into our affairs in order to see that we Mexicans perform our duty."

Dispatches from Villa's headquarters, via San Antonio, say that Villa is on the verge of a complete nervous breakdown as a result of the recent several reverses his forces have experienced. His worst defeat was administered to the army over which he was in personal command. He has been having serious differences with his officers, and within the past week he has summarily sentenced eight of his leading subordinates to be shot, charging them with criminal carelessness in the handling of their commands. He was persuaded, however, not to insist upon these sentences.
